A re-visit of what we teach in the classroom?

We are glad to share the feedback obtained from Thailand Conference delegates (February 16-17, 2018) held in The Ambassador Hotel Bangkok, Bangkok-Thailand.

Dear Conference Team,
It was a great experience attending your conference in Bangkok. Although not a very big gathering, you created an opportunity for us to interact with scholars from 14 different countries. The papers were interesting and stimulating, as well. I came to know of some people that I didn’t know before. Overall, it was a good and interesting experience.

Prof. Abu N.M. Wahid, Tennessee State University, USA.
